

The Swedish Model for Student Support

June 25, 2025

15h00 Portugal
16h00 CET

Online (Zoom)

Summary:

Higher education in Sweden is internationally recognized for its excellence, as well as the country's quality of life, which leads thousands of international students to do their bachelor's or master's degree in Sweden. Two experts from Södertörn University will speak on the subject of the Swedish Student Support Model.

- Head of department, Student services, presented by Andrea Didon
- Officer of equal rights, inclusion and Student law, presented by Peter Armstrong Wedborn

The session will be conducted in English. A sessão será conduzida em inglês.

Speakers: Andrea Didon and Peter Armstrong Wedborn

Andrea Didon was until 2021 Lecturer in Science and Science Didactics with focus in Sustainability. Until 2021 Head of Department with Science and Mathematics Didactics. Working as a Project Managers for Student Health and Student Recruitment until 2022. Currently, she works as Director of Student Support at Södertörn University.

Peter Armstrong Wedborn is a lawyer, who works directly with student law, equal treatment and disciplinary issues. Currently holds a position in the Student Affairs Division at Södertörn University.

step.ipb.pt